Anyone can write a pro or con point on ballot measures. Other members can request a fact-check.

Librarians provided fact-checks. They labeled points as "accurate," "questionable," or "unverifiable."

Research Question: Can we introduce an authoritative and trusted information source into ongoing public dialogue?

We evaluated from a Value Sensitive Design point of view. The four stakeholder groups are:

- Librarians
- Seattle Public Library
- LVG Members
- Point-Authors
